Jim

- I appreciate the single point of contact at Vox ISM with my dedicated account rep which gives me access to the entire Vox ISM team providing custom development, technical support, consulting, training and updates on new and exciting developments with the product.
 - NAV and CRM are integrated, very customizable and accessible to meet our very specific business needs.
 - Dynamics is easy to use and integrates well with other Microsoft products while maintaining the same look and feel making it easy to get new users up and running quickly. NAV is essential to Accounting and management and with our focus on improved customer service and sales management CRM has really evolved into a critical system for us.
 - Large selection of third-party add-ons that cover most if not all our business requirements
